If yours is one of the thousands of businesses or jobs that has been impacted during this public health crisis, you might feel concerned and uncertain as to how to proceed. I know I am. Our daily routines, lifestyles, and livelihoods have been disrupted by the COVID-19 virus and containment efforts.

What should you be doing now in order to be in a better position for the recovery? Communicate. Communicate. Communicate.

Now is not the time to go quiet or retreat into your cave. It's crucial that you communicate and actively stay in touch with customers, clients, colleagues, and strategic partners. People need to hear from you, but not in the same old ways you might have been communicating before the COVID-19 crisis. Your outreach needs to be revamped so that it is relevant and responsive to the needs, feelings, and focus that people are experiencing. And they need to hear from you now. They need your support more than ever before.
